UFO Race Championship 2010 First Schedule is Released!

(Mars, PA) – The UFO Race Championship tour has released the first official version of the 2010 race schedule. 8 events are set to be contested at 4 supertracks in the Pennova area.

The 2010 tour blasts off on Saturday night, March 27 at the Mercer Raceway Park. The “Chiller Thriller” will feature a Mach-41 lap UFO Super Late Model feature event paying $2,500 to the winner. The “Chiller Thriller” will not only be the first event of this year’s UFO Race Championship tour, but also the 2010 Super Late Model major event opener for the entire PA-OH-WV-NY 4-state region. A strong fleet of Super Late Model pilots is expected for this spectacular event. Since Mercer features the Super Late Models only for special events, it provides a neutral arena for the first battle of the UFO tour. Mercer has always been a leader in the region innovative race promotions and presents a top-quality racing program, making the 3/8 mile a perfect new ally of this Unified Force of race tracks.

The next event on the tour will be the first of 2 stops at the Tyler County Speedway in Middlebourne, WV. On Saturday, April 17, the “Topless 51” will feature an Area 51-lap Championship paying $5,000 to win. For the first time in UFO competition, the Super Late Model racecrafts will fly topless. Tyler County is under the new leadership of Circle Track Management Group and the new promotion team has planned major improvements for the facility during the season. Tyler County Speedway is a fan-favorite track as the ¼ mile bullring produces continuous, close racing action.

UFO will land at its home base at Pittsburgh’s PA Motor Speedway at Imperial, PA 4 times throughout the season. The first event will be the thrilling “F-2 Shockwave” twin features on Saturday, May 15 paying a total of $3,000 to win. The “F-2 Shockwave” will be one of 3 co-sanctioned races with the United Late Model Series from the northern tier area of PA. Over the past seasons, The “Monster Half-Mile” has become renowned for amazing, 3 and 4 wide racing and massive amounts of passing and track work during the offseason guarantees that will continue into 2010. Last year’s “F-2” Shockwave” saw Davey Johnson and Jared Miley split the wins, coming from the 15th and 13th starting positions on the grid.

The UFO pilots will return to Tyler County Speedway on Saturday, July 3 for the “Earl Hill WV Championship.” This event will showcase an Area-51 lap feature paying $5,000 to the winner. Zach Dohm of Cross Lanes, WV is the defending champion of this UFO event in WV.

The “Red Miley Rumble” will take place on Saturday, July 24 at PPMS. The 41 lap feature will pay at least $3,053 to win. This will be another UFO-ULMS challenge event. Bart Hartman of Zanesville, OH is the defending race champion.

The Lernerville Speedway at Sarver, PA will host the UFO Race Championship again in 2010. The “Lunarville 33” will take place on Friday Night, August 13. The race will go 33 laps for $2,000 to win. 2-time UFO Race Champion Alex Ferree of Saxonburg, PA is also the 3-time defending track champion at Lernerville. Alex claimed his first UFO victory at Lernerville last August.

The “PENNational” twin features will sizzle in the late summer on Saturday, August 28, also paying $3,000 total to win. John Flinner of Zelienople captured his 2nd all-time UFO feature win at this event last season. The UFO Race Championship is scheduled to conclude its season at PPMS in the fall. Last year, Bart Hartman claimed his 2nd and 3rd UFO events of 2009 by winning both races of the twin feature format season finale, carrying home record prize winnings for UFO and PPMS competition.
